$100 REWARD $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh, being a constitutional disease, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. Cheney & Co., Props., Toledo, O.

Sold by druggists, 75 cents.

THE IMMORTAL GEORGE

His Memory Honored By the Scholars of the Ocala Graded High School

Washington's birthday exercises at the Ocala Graded High School this morning were carried out per program.

The grammar department united with the high school classes and had union exercises of a very interesting character, as may be inferred from the appended program:

Songs, "Birthday of Washington Honored."

Declaration, "Washington's Birthday" (Choate)—Gilbert Barker.

Readings:

"The Record of Washington's Birth"—Max Fishel.

"Washington's Ancestors"—Sam Barco.

"Washington's Boyhood"—Lillian Thagard.

"The Cherry Tree Story"—Wright Hess.

Patriotic Glee.

"Expeditions to Fort Duquesne"—Hibbert Weathers.

"Washington's Address to His Soldiers Before the Battle of Long Island"—Louise Harris.

"The Glory of Washington"—Willie Wilson.

Declaration, "First in War, First in Peace, First in the Hearts of his Countrymen"—Adolph Dame.

Chorus, "We're a Band of Union Brothers."

Recitation, "Like Washington"—Brantley Weathers.

Recitation—Edna Jeffords.

Recitation—Evelyn Pelot.

Debate—Subject: "Which Threatens the Destruction of Our Government the More, the Centralization of Capital or Labor Agitations?"

Affirmative—Misses Leafy Sylvester and Lottie Kingman and Osco Zewadski.

Negative—Miss Violet Harris, Guy Zewadski and Miss Ethel Morton.

Song—School.

Visitors crowded the primary department to witness the "little tots and larger whots" go through their paces and they certainly did themselves and their teachers great credit.

Mrs. Marshall J. Turner was master of ceremonies and the following is their program, in which the intermediate department participated to the extent of their presence:

Primary Department

Song, "America"—School.

"Story of Washington"—B and C classes.

Recitation—Willie Holt.

Recitation—Vernon Gates.

Class recitation—First and second grade girls.

Pansy Song—School.

Recitation, "Spelling Match"—Ethel Crosby.

Recitation—Paul Weathers.

Song, "Children of America"—School.

Recitation—Willie Duggan.

Recitation—Mabel Batchelder.

Recitation—Ethel Seymour.

Flag Drill—First and second grade boys.

Song—School.

The piece de resistance was the "flag drill" by the second and third grade boys, who in their continental hats and sashes and the flag of our country byzzybzzy, presented a decided military air as they marched in to the tap of the drum to the platform and went through the drill at the tap of the drum, creating in the breasts of their auditors a feeling it was hard to suppress, so stirred were they with patriotic fervor.

The exercises concluded by the primary department, the intermediate department marched back to their room, followed by the scholars and teachers of the primary department and spectators, when the following program was enacted with great eclat:

Intermediate Department

Song, "Stars and Stripes"—Fourth grade.

"Greeting to the Month."

Composition—Ophelia Gray.

Recitation—Ben Todd.

Recitation—Edith Needham.

Recitation—Lottie Moore.

Recitation—Edna Smith.

Reading—Rhoda Liddon.

Recitation—Mary Mallett.

Song, "Red, White and Blue."

Salute, "Grandest Theme—All the Banners Waved"—Third grade.

Recitation—Clara Johnson.

Recitation—Adele Bittinger.

Recitation—George Denoro.

Recitation—Nettie Pooser.

Exercise, "Thirteen Colonies."

Recitation—Edna Culverhouse.

Recitation—Phil Robinson.

Recitation—Eula Durran.

Class recitation of six, third grade.

Recitation—Vivian Dame.

Closing song—School.

Closing song, "We Thank Thee"—School.

Notes

It will be no fault of the teachers of the pupils if the schools were not saturated with George Washington patriotism today and a true appreciation of the greatest and best man the American revolution produced for the admiration and adoration of future generations. Yet, strange to say, with all this stirring patriotism, the cherry tree episode was only mentioned once, that in the primary department, while "George's little hatchet" was inominously ignored, none so small to do it reverence.

A pleasing feature in the intermediate department was the singing, which in several instances was really fine.

Miss Turnley presided at the organ, while Miss Irma Porter, the accomplished principal of the school, was mistress of ceremonies.

There have been few Washington's birthday celebrations of the Ocala Graded High School at which the editor has not been present and none that have passed with a larger number of patrons and visitors present or who seemed deeper interested or the exer-

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinal laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.
